The North American Free Trade Agreement (NAFTA) is a trade deal between the United States, Mexico and Canada that has negatively impacted millions of workers in the United States and partner countries.

One of Donald Trump's biggest campaign promises was to renegotiate NAFTA to benefit working people and their families. However, the Trump administration recently announced that they are rushing a secret renegotiation process away from the eyes and ears of the American public.

We are calling on you to join us for a Public Hearing and open discussion on NAFTA later this month on Thursday, August 31st. You will hear from labor, environmental and social justice leaders as they discuss the impact NAFTA has had and learn what we need to do to fight back at this critical moment. Featured speakers include:

Robert Longer

California Political Coordinator
Communication Workers of America,
District 9

David Bacon

Author, The Children of NAFTA
Photojournalist and Activist

Gary Hughes

Senior California Advocacy
Campaigner, Friends of the Earth
